BASEBALL -- (20 YEARS AGO)

On July 19, 1957, the Senior Men's Club attended a baseball game in Detroit, for the first time.

Mrs. James R. Ewing was our guest - a Rose among Thorns. As the only lady present, she enjoyed it immensely - said "I've never eaten so many peanuts in my life."

Mrs. Ewing, one of the original group of Hostesses, acted as Secretary until election of our first officers on March 1st of that year. (See Reminder of February, 1973)

The game was between the Detroit Tigers and the New York Yankees - the wrong team won.

On this occasion we drove our own cars and parked close by in small parking lots, of which there were many. Our membership numbered about 40 men, 15 of whom were in attendance.
