THE REMINDER
A Publication of the Senior Men's Club
of Birmingham, Michigan

Vol. IX, No. 5

May, 1976

How beautiful the greening hills
And pastures lying in between.
Wild flowers are blooming everywhere
And trees put on new leaves of green.
Up over all this varied hue
There is a canopy of blue.

Spring is a birth time for the world..
A resurrection of new hope.
Where beauty rhymes with changing growth
And seems to add a wider scope.
Then over all and reaching high,
There is a canopy of sky.

- Agnes Davenport Bond

Spring unlocks the flowers to paint the laughing soil - Heber, Reginald (1713-1825)

CARD RACK

Does anyone have a use for the old card rack or box used for holding our identification cards before we started using the two check-in lines? There are 24 pockets in it. If you can use it, call Paul Fisher at 644-0364.

CAMERA CLUB - Philip C. Satterthwaite, Chairman

The May meeting of the Camera Club will be held at 2:00 P.M. on May 11th, at the home of Charles Heiney, who lives at 1263 Brookwood in Birmingham. Charley will conduct the entire meeting, starting off with an explanation of the newest features on the newest movie cameras. He has one and has been learning all about it for the last several months. After that, he will show slides of the most famous photographs in the news for the past 100 years, and including the Pulitzer prize winners. He will also have the stories behind the pictures. There is no doubt but that we will learn a lot about what makes a great picture.

We plan to have a field trip in June and the committee will have details at this May meeting.

HISTORY IN THE MAKING

The plan to surprise your Historian worked. It was well timed and the choice of Alger Crandell for Assistant Historian is excellent. (I have my Captain working for me now.)

Thank you, Alger, for those kind words which appeared in the March issue of the Reminder. I also appreciate the "Certificate of Appreciation" for my effort in creating the Annual Historical Review, which Ross Wagner promoted.

BASEBALL REVIEW

Mention of our contemplated trip to Tiger Stadium calls to mind our first such excursion.

This took place on July 24, 1958. There were only a few of us - so - we drove our own cars. It was emphasized that each one was to return with the driver who took us but - Old Age showed up. As one of our cars stopped for a traffic signal, Mr. xxxx recognized the driver of the waiting car, opened the door and climbed in. The driver of the car with the missing passenger searched the stadium and telephoned until 7:00 o'clock that evening trying to find Mr. xxxx.

If that Mr. xxxx had not been such a very nice fellow, he never would have been forgiven. Taking the bus is a better way.

T. A. (Moe) Henshaw,
Historian
