

Our Friday Speaker

November 15, 2024

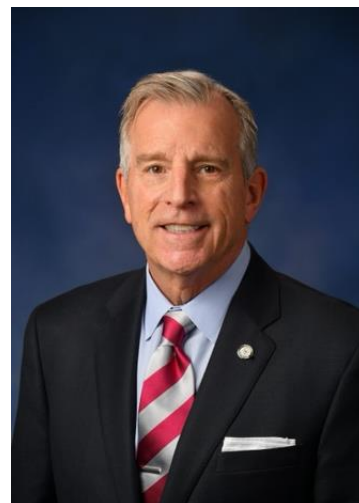

10:30 a.m. at Iroquois Club

or via Zoom

Mark Tidel

State Representative of Rochester Hills

"Four Ways to Spend Money"

A graduate of Drake University, Mark Tidel has served the past four years as State Representative of Rochester Hills where he is a strong advocate both for the residential community and business. He has 44 years of leadership experience in the medical insurance industry ranging from regional and district manager up to vice president and principal at Backus Payne.

He also served on the Board of Directors of the Community Foundation of Greater Rochester and was president of the Rochester Hills City Council. In addition to his business and public service, he is a professional singer and has been cantor of St. Andrews Catholic Church for over 30 years.

Originally from Port Huron, he enjoys his home in Rochester Hills with his wife Susan of 47 years. They have two children: Laura (42) an Executive Editor at Penguin Random House Publishing and Andrew (40), a Regional Operations Manager with Dignity Memorial.

Meeting at the Iroquois Club, 43248 Woodward Avenue, Bloomfield Township

North of Square Lake Road. Lunch reservation required by previous Monday.
